Quick Facts:

- Princeton has been invited to nine NCAA Tournaments, in 1977, 79, 89, 93, 95, 99, 2001, 09 and 10. The highlight was the Tigers' run in 1993 when it reached the College Cup in Davidson, N.C.. The Tigers received an at-large invitation to the tournament and hosted three matches at Lourie-Love Field. Princeton defeated Columbia 2-0 in the first round, Penn State 5-2 in the second round and Hartwick 3-0 in the quarterfinals. The Tigers lost 3-1 in the semifinals to Virginia a team that went on to win the national championship.
- In 1995, Jesse Marsch '95 became the 11th Tiger to earn first-team All-America status. Previous honorees were Ward Chamberlin '43 (1941, 1942); Bud Palmer '44 (1941); Chandler Brewer '45 (1942); Ralph Close '44 (1942); Butch van Breda Kolff '45 (1946); Robert Rogers '46 (1947); James Crutcher '52 (1951); Steve Davidson '70 (1969); Paul Milone '78 (1977) and Joe Thieman '94 (1992).
- In 1993, Andre Parris '97 was the recipient of Soccer America's Freshman Player of the Year award after setting a University record for assists in a season (12) and compiling an NCAA-record six assists in the post-season tournament. Parris finished his career as Princeton's all-time assist leader with 27.
- Head Coach Bob Bradley '80 resigned in January of 1996 after 12 seasons as head coach to become an assistant coach with D.C. United of the MLS, while also serving as an assistant with the U.S. Olympic Team. Bradley was a standout player for the Tigers during his playing career. He was the team's leading scorer during the 1979 season and was awarded the David S. Hackett Memorial Cup, given annually to the Princeton player demonstrating outstanding enthusiasm, discipline and leadership. In 1993, Bradley was named the National Coach of the Year by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America. Bradley is currently the head coach of the US Men's National Team.
- Head coach Jim Barlow '91, was hired February 21, 1996, exactly 12 years to the day Bradley was hired to lead the Tigers. Barlow was the 1987 Ivy League Rookie of the Year and 1990 Ivy League Player of the Year. He was a three-time first-team All-Ivy League selection and a first-team Academic All-America his senior year. He was one of the finest scholastic players in Mercer County history. Barlow was named the 1987 N.J. Soccer Coaches' Association Player of the Year.
- The U.S. Men's National Team chose Princeton as the site of its Pre-World Cup Training Camp. The team trained at Roberts Stadium from May 17-23, 2010.

Tigers in the Pros

Bob Bradley '80

Bradley, the winningest coach in American professional soccer history, was named the head coach of the U.S. Men's National Team in May of 2007. He signed a four-year contract extension in September 2010.

In his first FIFA World Cup, in 2010 in South Africa Bradley and the U.S. tied England (1-1) and Slovenia (2-2) and beat Algeria 1-0 to win Group C. The U.S. was eliminated in the round of 16, falling to Ghana 2-1. The team also won the 2007 CONCACAF Gold Cup and finished second in 2009.

Prior to getting the nod as the US head coach, Bradley was the head coach of three MLS teams. He was head coach of Chivas USA in 2006, the MetroStars (now the New York Red Bulls) from 2003-05, and the first coach of the Chicago Fire from 1998-02. He earned Coach of the Year honors after leading the team to MLS and U.S. Open Cup titles in 1998 and won the Open Cup again in 2000.

He was also an assistant coach for former U.S. national team coach Bruce Arena at D.C. United in 1996 and 1997. Bradley was Arena's assistant at Virginia from 1983-84.

At Princeton, he led the Tigers in scoring during his senior season of 1979, when the team advanced to the second round of the NCAAAs. He began coaching the Tigers in 1984 and in the next 12 seasons built the team into an Ivy League and national powerhouse. Princeton won two Ivy titles and earned three NCAA Tournament bids from 1984-95 and advanced to the NCAA semifinals in 1993 for the first time in school history.

Bradley started his coaching career at Ohio University, guiding the Bobcats to a 10-5-2 record in 1981 before joining Arena's staff at Virginia, where the Cavaliers posted a 32-7-2 record from 1982-83.

Charles Stillitano '81

Stillitano was a venue director at the Meadowlands for the 1994 World Cup. He was the general manager for the N.Y./N.J. MetroStar, which is now the New York Red Bulls, from 1996-99. He is currently organizer of the World Football Challenge.

Dave Vaudreuil '88

Vaudreuil played indoor and outdoor professional soccer immediately after graduation. In the MLS, he played with the Colorado Rapids, D.C. United and Chicago Fire.

He played 14 years professionally including seven in the MLS, where he won two MLS Championships. He coached the Atlanta Silverbacks of the USL and was appointed the head coach of the LA Galaxy U18 in August 2009.

Chris Unger '90

Unger played with the N.Y./N.J. MetroStars (now the New York Red Bulls) and then worked for the team as an assistant general manager. He was a leading scorer at Princeton and also played on the U.S. National U-20 Team.

Joe Thieman '94

A former player for D.C. United, Thieman was a driving force behind Princeton's run to the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament in 1993. A four-year starter in the center midfield, he is second on Princeton's all-time list with 25 career assists and on the single-season list with 10 assists in 1993. Thieman was a 1993 All-America selection and was awarded the Roper Cup, given annually to Princeton's outstanding male senior athlete.

Jesse Marsch '96

Marsch was named an assistant coach on the staff of the U.S. Men's National Team in February 2010. He subsequently announced his retirement as a Major League Soccer player.

Marsch isn't a stranger to USA Soccer. He was a member of the U.S. National Team during a World Cup qualifying match against Trinidad and Tobago in 2001 and against China in 2007.

Sports Illustrated reported in December 2009, that Marsch was one of two finalists for the head job of the Chicago Fire as he was pondering his retirement.

One of the most decorated and respected players in the MLS, Marsch made 358 appearances in his 14-year MLS career, winning three MLS Cup titles and four U.S. Open Cup medals. Prior to his retirement in 2010, Marsch was one of just four remaining MLS Originals and was the first player to win three MLS titles in his career.

He was drafted in the third round of the 1996 MLS College Draft by DC United. He spent the next two seasons with the team as it won the MLS Cup in 1996 and 1997 and the U.S. Open Cup in 1996.

In 1998, Marsch was traded to the Chicago Fire after the expansion draft under the team's first coach Bob Bradley '80. Marsch quickly became a mainstay in the lineup, and helped the Fire win four titles, including: the MLS Cup in 1998, the U.S. Open Cup in 1998, 2000 and 2003.

Marsch became the first player in Fire history to play in 100 games and is the team's all-time leader in that category. In 2004, he was honored as the Chicago Fire's U.S. Soccer Foundation Humanitarian of the year.

After the 2005 season, Marsch was traded to Chivas USA and was with them team until 2010. He wore the captain's armband for much of the 2008 and 2009 seasons. In 2007, he was the winner of the Chivas Regal Award, given to the player who best represents the spirit of Chivas USA.

Marsch was an All-American at Princeton, where he totaled 29 goals and 15 assists in four seasons. He finished 1994 and 1995 as the Ivy League's leading scorer and was on the all-Ivy team both years. He led the Tigers to an NCAA appearance during his senior year, when he scored 16 goals.

Andrew Lewis '98

Lewis played for the Chicago Fire and New York Red Bulls. At Princeton, he helped the Tigers advance to the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament in 1993. A tenacious defender with a great ability to break up plays and dominate the back, he also spent time with the U.S. National U-20 Team. He played in the A-League after concluding his MLS career.

Matt Behncke '02

Behncke was selected in the second round (18th overall) of the 2002 MLS draft by the Dallas Burn and saw action in three games during his first season. He made his first MLS start against Colorado when he played for 90 minutes, and started again in the final game of the season. In 2003, he played in 13 games and started a career-high nine matches. After the 2004 season he was selected by Real Salt Lake in the expansion draft. Following the 2005 season, he retired from professional soccer to attend law school.

Behncke earned Ivy League Rookie of the Year accolades in 1998, won his first league title in 1999, was named second-team all-Ivy during his first two seasons and was a first-team all-Ivy and all-region selection in 2000. He finished off his career with a unanimous first-team all-Ivy honor.

Mike Nugent '02

The Chicago Fire drafted Nugent in 2002 but a torn meniscus limited him to just four games that year. After surgery in June 2002, Nugent later joined the New York Red Bulls as a developmental player. He made his debut with the MetroStars on July 16, 2003 and scored on his first touch. Nugent retired from professional soccer in 2004 at age 24.

Nugent graduated from Princeton tied for fourth all-time in career goals and sixth in career points. He led the Tigers to an Ivy League title his senior year and was honored as the Ivy League Player of the Year, a first-team Mid-Atlantic region selection and a second-team NSCAA All-America pick.

Darren Spicer '06

Spicer was chosen in the second round (13th overall) by Chivas USA in the MLS Supplemental Draft in 2006. He played three games with the Chivas Reserves.

For a brief time, in 2006, Spicer played in Germany with the Brinkum S.V. of the Overliga.

He spent the 2007 season with the Minnesota Thunder of the United Soccer League. Spicer saw action in 17 games and scored collected seven points. In 2008, he signed with the Charleston Battery and is currently a midfielder on the team.

Spicer, the 2004 Ivy Player of the Year, scored 26 career goals at Princeton and was twice an all-region and all-Ivy pick. He had 12 goals as a junior in 2004.

Jame Wunsch '07

Wunsch was signed by the Cobh Ramblers of the FAI Premier Division (Ireland) in February 2008 after taking time to recover from a stress fracture sustained in the spring of 2007. He played his first game for Cobh on March 9th and made nine total appearances with the club before transferring to Limerick FC of the FAI First Division in July 2008.

He made over 30 appearances for Limerick over two seasons (2008, 2009) scoring two goals during that time. In May 2009, he was named interim team captain after the club captain sustained a serious injury. Unfortunately Wunsch himself sustained a serious knee injury in late July, which forced jim to return to the US to have surgery. He has since decided to leave the professional soccer arena for other opportunities.

Teddy Schneider '11

Schneider signed a contract with the New York Red Bulls in April 2011. He was selected by the Red Bulls in the 2011 MLS Supplemental Draft in February. Schneider saw his first action as a Red Bull on April 3, when he started and played 90 minutes in the Red Bulls Reserve's 3-1 victory over the University of Virginia.

A native of Califon, N.J., Schneider was named second-team All-Ivy League in 2010 when he led his team to a undefeated Ivy League season. He started all 18 games at left back and finished second on the team in assists with five while scoring one goal. In addition, Schneider helped his team to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 2009 and 2010. Schneider finished his career at Princeton playing in 69 games with 65 starts, scoring seven goals and eight assists.
